An inspiring journey of a young girl who sets out to make a difference in the world, one girl at a time.

In a world where it's easy to feel powerless, one young girl is proving that anyone can make a difference.

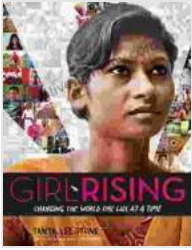

When 10-year-old Ruby Bridges was asked to integrate an all-white elementary school in New Orleans in 1960, she did so with courage and grace. Despite the angry mobs and threats, Ruby walked into William Frantz Elementary School every day with her head held high. Her bravery helped to break down the barriers of segregation and paved the way for other African American children to attend white schools.

Ruby's story is an inspiration to us all. It shows us that even the smallest of us can make a difference in the world. We all have the power to stand up for what we believe in and to make a positive impact on our communities.

This book is a must-read for anyone who wants to make a positive impact on the world. Ruby's story will inspire you to believe in yourself and to never give up on your dreams.
