Christmas Eve Penny The Puppy is a heartwarming tale of love and loss that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.

Penny is a little puppy who loves Christmas. She loves the twinkling lights, the smell of gingerbread, and the sound of Christmas carols. But most of all, Penny loves her family.

On Christmas Eve, Penny's family is gathered around the tree, singing carols and opening presents. Penny is so happy to be with her family, but she can't help but feel a little sad. She misses her best friend, a little girl named Lily.

Lily and Penny used to play together every day. They would go for walks in the park, play fetch in the backyard, and cuddle up on the couch to watch movies. But Lily moved away a few months ago, and Penny misses her very much.

On Christmas Eve, Penny decides to go for a walk in the park. She hopes that she will be able to find Lily and surprise her. As Penny walks through the park, she sees all sorts of Christmas decorations. There are twinkling lights, colorful ornaments, and even a giant Santa Claus. But Penny is too sad to enjoy any of it.

Just when Penny is about to give up, she sees a little girl sitting on a bench. The girl is all alone, and she looks very sad. Penny walks over to the girl and asks her what's wrong.

The girl tells Penny that her name is Sarah, and that she is lost. Sarah's parents are nowhere to be found, and she doesn't know how to get home.

Penny feels sorry for Sarah, so she decides to help her. Penny takes Sarah's hand and leads her out of the park. As they walk, Penny tells Sarah about her best friend, Lily. Sarah tells Penny about her family and her home.

By the time they reach Sarah's house, they are both feeling much better.

Sarah's parents are so grateful to Penny for helping their daughter. They invite Penny inside for some hot chocolate and cookies.

As Penny sits in Sarah's living room, she realizes that she has found a new best friend. Sarah is just as kind and loving as Lily was. Penny knows that she will never forget Lily, but she is also grateful for the new friendship she has found.
