Satish Kumar is a world-renowned peace activist and spiritual teacher. His memoir, Fear No Evil, tells the story of his journey from a young boy in India to a leading figure in the global peace movement. Along the way, he has met with some of the world's most influential people, including Mahatma Gandhi, Martin Luther King Jr., and Nelson Mandela.

Fear No Evil is a powerful and inspiring story of one man's journey to overcome fear and live a life of love and service. Kumar's story is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, we can find hope and meaning.

A Journey of Self-Discovery

Satish Kumar was born in India in 1936. He grew up in a small village and was raised in a Hindu tradition. As a young boy, he was deeply affected by the violence of the partition of India. He saw firsthand the horrors of war and the suffering it caused.

At the age of 19, Kumar left India to walk to England. He walked for over a year, covering a distance of over 8,000 miles. During his walk, he met many people and learned about different cultures. He also learned a great deal about himself.

When he arrived in England, Kumar met Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi became a mentor to Kumar and taught him about the importance of nonviolence and love. Kumar also met Martin Luther King Jr. and Nelson Mandela, who inspired him to continue his work for peace.

A Life of Service

Satish Kumar has dedicated his life to working for peace. He has founded several organizations, including the Peace Pilgrims and the Schumacher College. He has also worked with many other organizations, including the United Nations and Amnesty International.

Kumar's work has been recognized around the world. He has received numerous awards, including the Gandhi Peace Prize and the Right Livelihood Award. He has also been named a UN Messenger of Peace.

A Message of Hope

Fear No Evil is a message of hope. It is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, we can find hope and meaning. Kumar's story is a testament to the power of love and nonviolence. It is a story that will inspire you to live a life of purpose and service.
