

How My Forthcoming Death Transformed My Life: A Must-Read for the Terminally Curious

In the face of death, we are all terminally curious. We wonder what it will be like, how we will feel, and what will happen to us afterwards. But for most of us, these questions remain unanswered until the very end.

Not so for the author of How My Forthcoming Death Transformed My Life. Diagnosed with a terminal illness at the age of 35, she was forced to confront her own mortality head-on. And in ng so, she discovered a newfound appreciation for life and a profound sense of peace.
