

Unlock the Secrets of Sentence Mastery with Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

Are you struggling to write sentences that are clear, concise, and impactful? Do you find yourself stuck in a rut of simple sentences that lack sophistication and variety? If so, "Simple, Compound, Complex Sentences" by Eric Tyndall is the perfect guide to help you elevate your writing skills to the next level.

COMPOUND-COMPLEX SENTENCE

WHAT IS A COMPOUND COMPLEX SENTENCE?

It's a sentence composed of two or more sentences joined by a conjunction, and one or more of those sentences must be a complex sentence. Otherwise, it's a compound sentence comprising of a dependent or subordinate clause.

EXAMPLES OF COMPOUND-COMPLEX SENTENCES

They are used mainly to express complex thoughts or a sequence of events. School books and novels are the main areas where compound-complex sentences are applied on a large extent.

- John doesn't like novels since they are lengthy, so he doesn't read them.
