A Tapestry of Artistic Conversations

Documents is a captivating tapestry of interviews, conversations, and collaborations between Obrist and some of the most influential artists, curators, and thinkers of our time, including Ai Weiwei, Marina Abramović, Christo and Jeanne-Claude, and Rem Koolhaas.

Through these intimate and insightful dialogues, Obrist weaves a vibrant narrative that explores the creative processes, inspirations, and challenges that shape the artistic landscape.

The Art of Curation: A Behind-the-Scenes Look

As one of the world's foremost exhibition curators, Obrist grants us an exclusive glimpse into the art of curation through his own experiences and collaborations.

Documents offers a fascinating look at the conception, development, and execution of groundbreaking exhibitions at renowned institutions such as the Serpentine Galleries in London and the Museum für Moderne Kunst in Frankfurt.

A Reflection of the Cultural Landscape

Beyond the realm of artistic conversations, Documents extends its scope to explore the broader cultural landscape.

Obrist engages with architects, designers, musicians, and scientists to uncover the interconnectedness of art with other disciplines and its profound impact on our collective understanding of the world.

A Journey Through Artistic Evolution

Documents is not merely a compilation of interviews; it is a living document that chronicles the evolution of art and culture over the past decades.

Through Obrist's keen eye, we witness the emergence of new artistic movements, the transformation of traditional mediums, and the enduring legacy of iconic artists.

A Celebration of Artistic Curiosity and Innovation

Documents is a testament to Hans Ulrich Obrist's boundless curiosity and tireless dedication to fostering artistic innovation.

This book is an essential read for anyone fascinated by contemporary art, art history, exhibition curation, or the ever-changing cultural landscape that surrounds us.
