Dress Code

One of the most important aspects of prom is the dress code. For girls, a formal floor-length gown is the traditional choice. However, shorter dresses or pantsuits are also acceptable, as long as they are still dressy. For boys, a tuxedo is the traditional choice. However, a dark suit and tie are also acceptable.

Gowns Dress Code

1. Neckline is measured straight across from armpit to armpit without cleavage showing. No princess or sweetheart necklines. Only solid fabric below line.
2. The lowest part of the back must be at or above natural waistline, and when arms are relaxed at your side, skin and openings must be completely covered in front of arms, without "side exposure".
3. Dress must fall BELOW KNEE, for hem, slits, wraps, & all openings. No skin may show at knee or above when walking or standing.
4. Prom appropriate shoes.
5. Formal wear only - NO Costumes or Cosplay

● Pants/Pantsuits MUST be Pre-Approved.

No matter what you choose to wear, make sure that your outfit is clean, pressed, and fits well. You should also avoid wearing anything too revealing or too tight.

Behavior on the Dance Floor

The dance floor is one of the most important places to observe proper etiquette at prom. Here are a few tips to keep in mind:

- Never cut in on someone who is already dancing.
- If you want to dance with someone, ask politely.
- Don't dance too close to other couples.
- Be respectful of your dance partner.
- Don't drink or smoke on the dance floor.

Other Etiquette Tips

Here are a few other etiquette tips to keep in mind for prom:

- Arrive on time.
- Introduce yourself to your date's parents.
- Be polite to everyone you meet.
- Don't drink or smoke underage.
- Have a designated driver or a safe way to get home.

Prom is a special event that should be enjoyable for everyone. By following these etiquette tips, you can help to ensure that your prom is a night to remember.
