Doe's journey began in her early twenties, when she left her comfortable life in the United States to embark on a solo adventure around the world. With little money and no set itinerary, she set out to explore the places that most tourists never see. Along the way, she encountered a kaleidoscope of cultures, from the vibrant tribes of the Our Book Library rainforest to the nomadic shepherds of the Mongolian steppes.

In Where Was?, Doe shares her experiences with honesty and humor, painting a vivid portrait of the world's hidden wonders. She describes the breathtaking beauty of remote islands, the crumbling ruins of ancient civilizations, and the vibrant markets of bustling cities. She also delves into the challenges she faced along the way, from language barriers to cultural misunderstandings.

Through her travels, Doe discovered not only the beauty of the world, but also the resilience and kindness of the human spirit. She learned to embrace the unexpected, to live in the moment, and to appreciate the simple things in life. Where Was? is a testament to the power of travel to transform our lives and to open our eyes to the world's hidden treasures.

For anyone who loves to travel, dreams of adventure, or simply wants to escape the everyday, Where Was? is a must-read. Doe's captivating storytelling and stunning photography will transport you to far-away lands and leave you longing for your next adventure.
